

Donald Stafford Scholarship Application Form

Each year, the Cherokee Chorale offers a scholarship in the amount of $1,000 to a student graduating from a Cherokee County School who seeks to further his/her education in Music Performance, Sacred Music, or Music Education at a college or university in Georgia. The scholarship is offered in honor of Donald Stafford, one of the founders and long-time conductors of the Cherokee Chorale.

In order to be considered for this scholarship, please complete all sections of this application and return it to the address below, postmarked no later than March 23, 2027.. The Director's Evaluation Form should be completed by your high school music teacher and should be sent directly to the address below.

Determination of the scholarship award shall be made no later than April 12, 2027 and shall be communicated to the applicant. The Chorale reserves the right to award no scholarship if it determines there is no appropriate recipient. Any decision of the Chorale is final. Scholarship funds shall be paid directly to the student's school of choice, in their name.
